

Featherstone

Centurion Stone looks like and feels like natural stone. That's because they are made from natural stone patterns. Colors and textures are carefully controlled, and the reduced weight and cost of Centurion Stone makes it more desirable, with more choices than natural stone.

Centurion has more than Fifty (50) Patterns and Two Hundred (200) Colors and a complete line of accessory items and corner pieces to complement each Centurion Stone product line.